

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT
PROVIDER-CONSULTANT

In consideration of receiving certain confidential or proprietary information, UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company, on behalf of itself, UnitedHealth Military & Veterans, LLC and the other entities that are United's affiliates (collectively referred to as "United"), _____ ("Provider"), and Leo Peters ("Consultant"), agree as follows:

1. Information to be Disclosed. In the course of Consultant's business relationship with Provider, United may disclose to Provider and/or Consultant certain confidential information. Confidential or proprietary information, whether written or oral, shall include, but is not limited to, information relating to provider information, data, computer programs and codes, payment processes or methods, operational procedures, and is defined in this agreement as "Confidential Information." Confidential Information may be disclosed orally, electronically, in writing, by inspections, or in any tangible medium.
2. Agent. Provider agrees that Consultant is Provider's agent for the purpose of gathering such Confidential Information, and that, if Provider is already a participating provider with United, Consultant is bound by Provider's agreement with United as that agreement relates to confidentiality in addition to Consultant's obligations hereunder.
3. Time Period for Disclosures. The restrictions on Confidential Information contained in this agreement continue indefinitely.
4. Restrictions. Provider and Consultant agree to keep Confidential Information secret and confidential and agrees not to disclose it to third parties outside Provider's or Consultant's organization without United's prior written permission. Consultant may disclose Confidential Information to Provider and Provider may disclose Confidential Information to Consultant without United's prior written permission. Provider and Consultant further agree that neither Provider nor Consultant will disclose Confidential Information to anyone within their respective organizations other than those employees with a need to know it and who have been informed of Provider's or Consultant's obligations under this agreement. Provider or Consultant will not use any Confidential Information for any purpose, other than discussions or business dealings with United, without United's prior written permission. Provider or Consultant will not reproduce any Confidential Information exchanged without United's prior written permission. Provider or Consultant shall not reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile any prototypes, software or other tangible objects which embody any part of Confidential Information.
5. Exceptions. The restrictions of paragraph 4 of this agreement do not apply to information that (a) was in Provider's or Consultant's possession prior to receiving Confidential Information from United; or (b) is or later becomes generally available to the public through no fault of Provider or Consultant; or (c) Provider or Consultant develops internally, without reference to Confidential Information; (d) Provider or Consultant is required by law to disclose; or (e) Provider or Consultant receives from a third party which it believes had the right to disclose the information to Provider or Consultant.

6. Disclaimers. This agreement does not require United to disclose any Confidential Information. All Confidential Information is disclosed on an "AS IS" basis. United will not be liable for any damages arising out of use of the Confidential Information, and the use of such information is at Provider's or Consultant's own risk. Neither this Agreement nor the disclosure of any Confidential Information grants Provider or Consultant any license under any patents, copyrights, or trade secrets.
7. Remedies. Provider and Consultant agree and acknowledge that money damages alone would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this agreement and that United shall be entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief to remedy or prevent any breach or threatened breach of this agreement by Provider or Consultant or any of its representatives. Such remedy shall not be the exclusive remedy for any breach of this agreement, but shall be in addition to all other rights and remedies available at law or in equity.
8. Return of Materials. Provider or Consultant shall return all its copies of Confidential Information to United within 10 days after United's request for it. That portion of the Confidential Information that may be found in analyses, compilations, studies or other documents prepared by or for the Provider or Consultant and written Confidential Information not so requested or returned will be destroyed.
9. Amendments. This agreement is the entire agreement of the parties regarding Confidential Information, and it cannot be altered or amended without a writing signed by all parties.

UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company, on behalf of itself, UnitedHealth Military & Veterans, LLC and the other entities that are United's affiliates

Provider: Radiantcare Radiation Oncology

By: _____

By: Lani Jalkuta

Title: _____

Title: Director of Strategic Financial Planning

Date: _____

Date: January 21, 2013

Consultant: Sound Medical Consulting, LLC

By: Jim Plummer

Title: Owner

Date: 12-31-12